When Durability Counts, Rely on CORDURA® Brand Fabric

For durability, versatility and reliability when it counts, CORDURA® fabric delivers — in activewear, outerwear, workwear apparel, denim and socks. Across a broad range of apparel applications, wearers will benefit from the lightweight durability of CORDURA® fabric. CORDURA® brand fabrics are designed for living and built to last, providing exceptional resistance to tears, scuffs and abrasions.

Precise engineering makes CORDURA® fabrics the fabric of choice for lightweight activewear to rugged skiwear. CORDURA® fabric is a high-performance, super-durable material found in a wide variety of premium products.

The combination of durability, high-performance aesthetics and comfort is what drives respected apparel brands and retailers to specify CORDURA® fabric. With fabrics that can weigh as little as 100gr/m², the CORDURA® brand brings all of the benefits of lightweight fabrics, but with exceptional durability.

CORDURA® brand fabric – durability at its peak!

Abrasion-resistant CORDURA® fabric combines performance with versatility - it performs as effortlessly in motorcycle apparel as it does in casual leisure clothing. For maximum durability and for toughness that lasts and lasts, there's only one brand that can take it: the CORDURA® brand.
